Leader in "Silence" Protest

Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany.

In furtherance of the cause of suffrage a group of attractive looking college women went to the Federal Building in New York and gave the Honorable United States District Court a "silence" protest as the court makes citizens. The young women represented the College Equal Franchise League, which decided upon the novel expedient of a speechless campaign against the discrimination which would give citizenship to foreign born men and withhold it from American women.

The delegation, headed by Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, president of the College Equal Suffrage League, attended the naturalization proceedings. Not a word did they say.

They sat in silent protest. Their attitude said: "Compare these foreign-born specimens with us; honest to goodness, how can you do it?"

Personal

Civic Outlook.
It is to be hoped that the discussion in council meeting recently will eventually result in the installation of waterworks throughout the city. The present water supply is inadequate and very unsatisfactory and the waterworks problem is one that the city council will have to face some time.—Bamberg Herald.

To Sleep Well in Summer.
Slight inflammation of the bronchial tubes causes a distressing cough and makes refreshing sleep impossible. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound covers raw, inflamed, irritated surfaces with a soothing, healing coating and stops that annoying tickling, relieving the racking, choking cough. Take this splendid cough medicine with you on summer trips. It is good for coughs, colds, bronchial affections and in gripe coughs. Evans Pharmacy.

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

Somewhat Barren.
"I'm thinking of entering the field of literature."
"My friend, hesitate."
"Why do you discourage me?"
"The field of literature, in nine cases out of ten, wouldn't even produce turnips."

So It Would Appear.
Patience—it is said that an excellent beverage, similar to tea, can be brewed from the common maidenhair fern.

Patience—it would come pretty near being green tea, wouldn't it?

Where the Danger Was.
"I'd cross the world for you, dear," said the young man on the parlor sofa.

"Oh, that's all right," said the sweet young thing alongside of him; "but don't cross father."

How He Escaped.
The Mate—Sirens on the port bow, sir!

Ulysses—Pass 'em up! Beat it! I sight a moving-picture man hiding among the rocks.

Right on Her Job.
Huggins—They tell me Mrs. Henpeck is a neat and tidy housekeeper.

Guggins—Why, yes; her husband can't even drop a remark at home but what she picks it up immediately.

Something in a Name.
Hyker—I wonder why the game of poker is so called?

Pyker—I guess it's because a fellow is apt to burn his fingers when he gets the wrong end of it.

WANTED TO KNOW.

She—Papa says if I will remain single, I can have everything my heart desires.

He—But what if your heart desires a husband? Can you have that, too?

Such is Life.
A man will struggle out of debt, With all his might and main, And in a week or two will get Deep in the hole again.

Explaining the Look.
"Who is that man with the hunted look?"

"That's Dumworth, a broker's clerk. His wife is called the best dressed woman in town."

His Choice.
First Laborer (gazing into jeweler's window)—How would you like to have your pick among that lot, Bill?

Second Laborer—Id sooner have my shovel.—St. James Gazette.

The Dividing Line.
"He's very fond of drawing fine distinctions."

"Yes?"

"Why, he tried to differentiate between love and emotional insanity."

Had Him Guessing.
"Pardon me, old man, but people are wondering how you can afford to buy your wife the clothes she selects."

"I don't blame 'em. I wonder myself."

Opposite Results.
"That actress has had a paradoxical career."

"In what way?"

"She's come forward so because she had so much backing."

Slight Mistake.
"What do you think? Jim got a dog license by mistake when he applied for a marriage license."

"That doesn't make much difference. He'll lead a dog's life anyway."

Its Burden.
"Gwendolyn says she has a weight on her mind."

"How so?"

"She's got her feather fixed all right."

WHEN
you see an arrow,
what do you thing of?

Of Course!
WHY
Because it goes straight to the spot!

DRINK MORE WATER
IF KIDNEYS BOTHER
Eat Less Meat and take Salts For Bachache or Bladder Trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach get sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithin, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Theodor's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used."

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man."

Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Theodor's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Toledo, O.—Mrs. Henry Carr recently received a mysterious sealed packet, which when opened proved to be twenty-one love letters sent by her to Robert Budlinger, of Cleveland. The young man died recently, and believing Mrs. Carr to be still unmarried, provided in his will that the letters be returned to the writer.

Frederick, Md.—Rev. Geo. White-side, preaching a sermon on the subject, "Take Unto Thyself a Wife," was interrupted by H. C. Rockwell and Miss Nellie Barger, who taking the preacher at his word, arose from their places in the congregation and marched down the aisle to the pulpit, where the young man requested the minister to marry them. After a whispered conversation the ceremony was performed. The sermon was never finished, for the affair was turned into a reception.

Ferth Amboy, N. J.—Mr. and Mrs. McFarlane have 17 children. Her husband thought it would be right to hire a housekeeper to help her. As soon as the housekeeper appeared Mrs.

McFarlane walked out and deserted the family. When arrested she said that she did not want anyone interfering with her work and would go back if the housekeeper was fired.

London, Eng.—When Lloyd-George's bill passes, the government will control absolutely the sale of liquor in selected districts—areas where munitions of war are being made—including that dispensed in clubs and grocery stores. A commission under the chairmanship of Lord Dunellen will deal with the question of compensation to the liquor dealers for their losses.

New York City, N. Y.—Last Christmas Mrs. Sadie Brown hung up her stockings on the mantel, expecting her husband to place some little gift therein. On Christmas morning the stocking was empty. Unable to forgive this neglect and never recovering from the disappointment, she has sued for divorce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Felton and family returned yesterday from Townville where they had been visiting relatives.
